

Privacy Policy

Ozark Roofing and Construction respects the privacy of every individual who visits our website. We will only use the data obtained through this website for the specific purposes you have authorized.

Links to Other Websites

Ozark Roofing and Construction may make content or services from other web sites. These other web sites are not subject to this Privacy Policy. We recommend that you review the Privacy Policy at each website to determine how that site protects your privacy.

Your Choice

You can let us know that you do not want to be notified about our products and services or other special offers by sending us a written request via the Contact page on our site. When submitting your request via the contact us page please include the words "Privacy Policy opt-out" in the subject line as well as the body of the request. Please also include the email address that you wish to have "opt-out"

Information Use

When a user browses the same website in the future, after an initial visit the data is stored in a cookie and can be retrieved by the website to notify the website of the user's previous activity. Cookies were designed to be a reliable mechanism for websites to remember the state of the website or activity the user had taken in the past. This can include clicking particular buttons, logging in, or a record of which pages were visited by the user on previous visits.

Ozark Roofing and Construction may employ cookie technology to help you move faster through our website, to estimate our total audience size and traffic and to help us improve user experience by measuring which site areas are of greatest interest to users. You can turn off the ability to receive any of these cookies by adjusting the browser in your computer. If you wish to find out more about cookies, or how to refuse cookies, please visit the Interactive Advertising Bureau's web site at All About Cookies.

Your visit to our website may automatically provide us with data that is not linked to your personal information, such as your IP (Internet Protocol) address, browser type, operating system, domain name, access times, and referring web site addresses. Some parts of our website may use embedded pixel or javascript technologies to facilitate your use of the Web site and to track general traffic. We use your anonymous data to obtain general statistics regarding the use of our website and its specific web pages and to evaluate how our visitors use and navigate our web site on an aggregate basis. We do not link your anonymous data with personal data.

We also use Google Analytics as an analytics provider and that service also places cookies so we can improve the site based on usage patterns.
